PROSPECTUS For publishing in the City of Washington, a Democrati Newspaper, to be called

"THE CONSTITUTION."

The undersigned having purchased the materials of The Spectator, will issue, on or before the 10th inst. the first number of a new paper to be called "The Constitution." It will be devoted to the steady advocacy of that system of measures which will preserve unimpaired the sacred instrument from which we borrow the name; and as constantly oppose whatever is not sanctioned by it. We shall unceasingly oppose a National Bank—a Protective Tariff—Internal Improvement by the General Government—a Distribution of the Proceeds of the sales of the Public Lands—Assumption of the State Debts—an abrogation of the Executive Veto, as unconstitutional and inexpedient.

We hope to make the paper worthy of the confidence and suppart of the Democratic party. It shall be the faithful expositor of their principles, and the ever ready medium to convey their sentiments and wishes to the public. The Democratic cause, is the cause of truth and justice. It courts the light, It shows no investigation. And we are determined to see whether a paper, conducted with a devotion to the principles, rather than to the mea, of our party—to further the great cause of human progress, rather than the mere advancement of particular individuals, will not commend itself to the confidence and favor of thepeople.

As soon as the all engrossing topics of the elections "THE CONSTITUTION."

of thepeople.

As soon as the all engrossing topics of the elections are over, we shall devote a liberal portion of our co-lumns to subjects of general liberature and science; endeavoring to present such matter as will amuse, instruct, and edify.

instruct, and edify.

The proceedings of Corgress will receive particular attention, and a full and comprehensive summary will be given, including the yeas and nays upon an important questions.

The paper, for the present, will be issued semi-weekly during the recess, and daily during the sessions of Congress, at five dollars per annum, in ad-
